

Why Partner with the World Employment Confederation

Join a Global Community and Lead in a Changing World of Work

Affiliate Partnership with the World Employment Confederation allows vendors and suppliers relevant to the HR Services industry to align with the confederations values and be part of a global community of national federations and global workforce solutions companies.

Affiliate Partnership with the WEC enables them to:

Gain credibility and brand integrity through alignment with WEC quality standards and values

Increase commercial & thought leadership visibility on a global stage

Be part of a global community of HR Services experts and practitioners providing in-depth knowledge of labour and staffing markets

Access to a unique network of advocacy experts dealing with international policymakers

Foster new business opportunities through direct entry point to national federations and global workforce solutions companies and ensure that your services/products are relevant to the industry