

Charles Cameron

RCSA Chief Executive Officer

With 25 years' of experience in the workforce solutions industry, Charles experience spans across labour law, economics, public policy, advocacy, risk management and professional standards.

Before commencing as CEO for RCSA Australia & New Zealand, in 2016, Charles was a consulting partner in Australia's largest dedicated workplace consulting and law firm. Prior to this, Charles ran his own consulting firm, worked within a recruitment and staffing firm and, prior to that, was a consultant with the Australian Industry Group, Australia's most influential industry association. In addition to his successful professional services career Charles founded a tech start up in 2006, which continues to successfully service the staffing market, and beyond, today.

As CEO of RCSA Australia & New Zealand, Charles has proudly led numerous campaigns to promote and protect the staffing market, which has relied upon his extensive stakeholder management skills. Charles has also significantly increased the commercial success of RCSA by ensuring strong advocacy, compelling member services and unwavering good governance.

Charles is the current Vice President of The World Employment Confederation and a very proud advocate of how labour market intermediaries deliver incredible value to people, communities and economies.

Charles holds a Bachelor of Economics and a Graduate Diploma in Labour Law.

Born in regional Victoria, Charles lives in Melbourne and can be found running, playing cricket and listening to soul music.
